

What is SoftWebsite?

SoftWebsite is a web-application for controlling of dynamic web-sites. With SoftWebsite you can quickly and easy add, change the structure and the content and control access to resources from your site. And all you need for that purpose is access to the Internet and basic computer knowledge.

Features:

- Useful and easy navigation
- Dynamic menu with unlimited depth
- Dynamically generated map of the site
- Contextual search in the site pages
- Support for different languages
- Optimization for the search engines
- Support of digital certificates
- Unlimited number of pages
- Unlimited number of users
- Functional modules for news, contacts, discussions, links, xml web services, documents, content, iframe and e-mail feed back form
- Useful and easy editing of the content with web-based WYSIWYG editor with feature for direct upload of the files and images to the site web server
- Generating of the valid HTML code

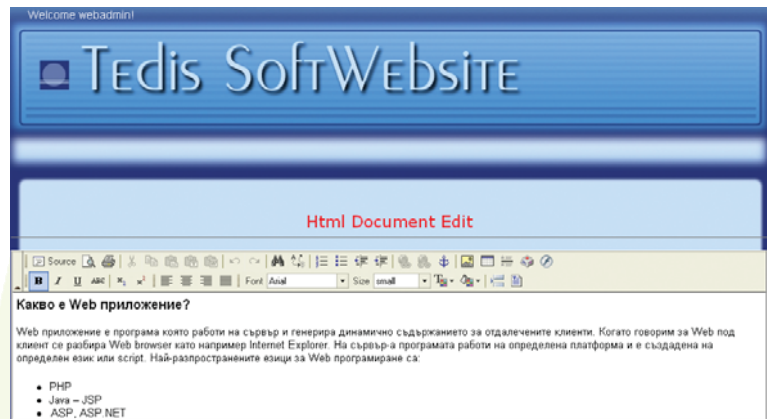

Technology:

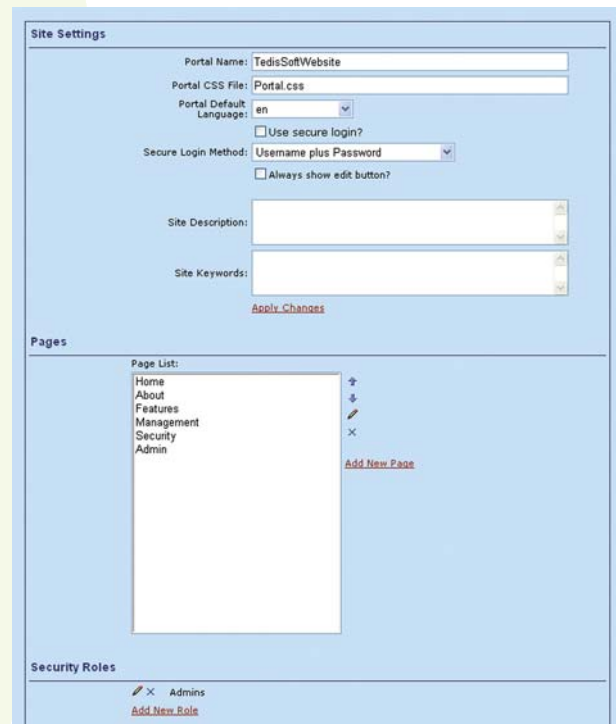

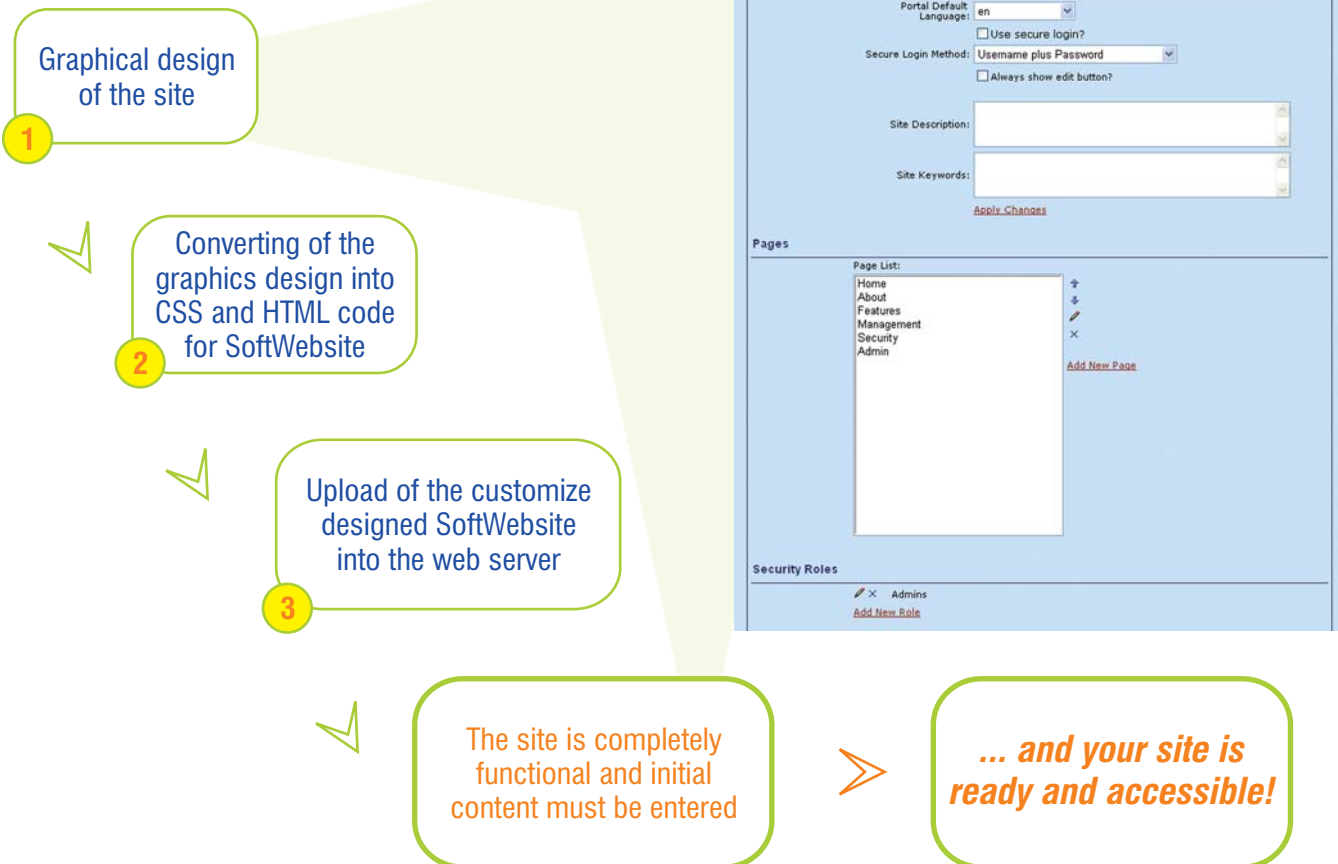

SoftWebsite is based on powerful ASP.NET technology of Microsoft. ASP.NET provides speed, security, reliability, high efficiency and functionality. For storing of the site's information is used Microsoft SQL database server.

Requirements

- Access to the Internet
- Supported Web-browsers
 - Internet Explorer 5.5+
 - Mozilla FireFox 1.0+
 - Opera 7.5+
- Enabled JavaScript for the dynamic menu and html editor
- Flash Player if the site includes flash-banners

Example process for site creation:

TEDIS DESIGN Ltd

tel.: + 359 2 8255036, + 359 888 366063; site: www.tedis.org; e-mail: office@tedis.org